

REFLEX GLASS

Toughenable

Reflex glass is a distinctive material with a subtle bronze tone that combines transparency with a soft, mirror-like reflectivity. It can be toughened for durability, making it suitable for practical applications without compromising on style. Ideal for interior furniture and framed doors, it adds depth, warmth, and a refined contemporary finish to any space.

4mm Reflex
Toughenable Glass

